

Re-established February, 1945.

PRICE, $24 PER ANNUM

Shipping.

Sailing Vessels.

Sailing Vessels.

FOR NEW YORK.

The A 1 German Bark
"G F Muntz,"
STENZEL, Master, will load
here for the above Port, and
will have quick despatch.
For Freight, apply to
VOGEL & Co.
Hongkong, June 18, 1880.

For Freight, apply to
VOGEL & Co.

 HATFIELD, Master, will load
here for the above Port, and
will have quick despatch.
For Freight, apply to
VOGEL & Co.
Hongkong, May 19, 1880.

FOR NEW YORK.
The A 1 American Ship
"Wm. H. Macy,"
WABOY, Master, will load here for the above Port and will

Hongkong, April 24, 1880.

 W. C. WAELAND, Master, will load here for the above Port, and will have quick despatch.
For Freight, apply to

Hongkong, April 21, 1890.

FOR NEW YORK.
The A 1 American Ship
"Centennial"
BEARE, Master, will load here
for the above Port and call

For Freight, apply to VOGEL & Co.
Hongkong, April 8, 1880.

ANGSTADT INSURANCE ASSOCIATION.
CAPITAL (Fully Paid-up).....Ths. 420,000
PERMANENT RESERVE.....Ths. 230,000

TOTAL CAPITAL AND AC-
CUMULATIONS, 8th
April, 1880.....TLR 913,268

F. B. FORBES, Esq., Chairman.
M. BOYD, Esq.	WM. MEYERINK, Esq.
H. PINCKVOSS, Esq.	F. D. HITCH, Esq.

Messrs RUSSELL & Co., Secretaries.
LONDON BRANCH:
Messrs BARING BROTHERS & Co.,
Bankers.

ROBERT BLACKWELL, Esq., Agent,
8, St. Michael's Alley, Cornhill, E.C.

POLICIES granted on Marine Risks to all parts of the World.
Subject To a charge of 12% for Interest

the UNDERWRITING BUSINESS are an-nally distributed among all Contributors
Business in proportion to the Premia aid by them.

RUSSELL & Co.,
Agents.

Hongkong, May 11, 1880. 10080

MANCHESTER FIRE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF
MANCHESTER AND LONDON.

Capital of the Company	21,000,000	Sterling
of which is paid up	£ 100,000	"
Reserve Fund upwards of	£ 120,000	"
Annual Income	£ 250,000	"

Agents for the above Company at Hongkong, Canton, Foochow, Shanghai, and Hankow, and are prepared to grant insurances at current rates.

THE CHINA FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, LIMITED.

HEAD OFFICE—HONGKONG.

AGENCIES at all the Treaty Ports of China and Japan, and at Singapore, Penang, and Hongkong.

NO CHARGE FOR POLICY FEE.
JAS. B. COUGHTREE,
Secretary.

greatly impeded through heavy rainfalls rising as high as where the workmen were employed. The Chen-wei was fitted with a new stem, her boiler and engines thoroughly overhauled, and for the first time was supplied with a steel ram. She went on a trial trip yesterday afternoon, when everything proved highly satisfactory, and at noon to-day she proceeded to her usual station, Macao. The three sailing vessels docked yesterday evening were the Swedish barque, Hermine, the German 3-masted schooner Hongkong, and the German barque Osiris Brona; while the S.S. Washi is moored alongside waiting the first opportunity of having some extensive repairs executed by the same company. This certainly speaks well for the shipbuilding capabilities of the Colony; what with the large and extensive docks at Aberdeen, capable of taking the heaviest of H.M.'s ironclads as well as the largest of the mail companies' steamers, the accommodation of the same companies' docks at Hung Nam, and the capacity of the new company, we should imagine there is ample opportunity for vessels of all classes trading in the East to receive every repair required under almost any conceivable contingency.

The following is the contribution of a valued correspondent to the great Volunteer-Militia Movement for popular favour:

"The country rings around with loud alarms
And in the fields the red militia swarms;
Months without hands, maintained at vast expense—
In peace a charge, in war a weak defence.
Stout once a month they march, a blustering band,
And over, but in time of need, at hand.
This was the morn when, issuing on the guard,
Drawn up in rank and file they stood prepared.
Of seeming arms to make a short essay,
Then hasten to be drunk, the business of the day."
—Dryden's "Ozymon and Iphigenia."

The following is the order of Service at St. John's Cathedral, to-morrow, sixth Sunday after Trinity:

Matins.—Venite, No. 3; Psalm, 26 and 27; Monks; Te Deum, Dr. W. Sangster (M.B. Book); Jubilate, No. 112; Monks; Anthem, "Turn thy face from my Sin"; Kyrie, Missa de Agellia; Hymn, No. 317.
Evensong.—Psalm, Nos. 23 and 29; Monks; Magnificat, Trinitum in F; Nunc Dimittis Trinitum in F; Hymn, No. 174; Hymn, 31.

The Catholic Register of the 3rd inst. contains the following paragraph:

Monsieur P. Silvain has taken the charge of the French Consulate here during the absence of Monsieur De Longprey.

We are very glad to hear that Mr. Th. Ferguson of Glasgow has been made Comptroller in the Order of Knighthood of Francis Joseph.

Mr. A. da Silveira, the worthy President of the Hongkong Catholic Circle, has been entertained for two nights, on the 19th and 20th ultimo, in the Catholic Circle of Shanghai.

There are at present in China 508 schools in charge of the Society of Missiones Extraneas de Paris, with an average attendance of 9,000 pupils. There are besides 16 Colleges and Seminaries where about three hundred students, who are being trained for the priesthood.

On the 24th the Brothers of the Christian Doctrine celebrated at St. Joseph's College the second centenary of the foundation of their well-known Congregation, which now numbers more than 12,000 members. A gathering of the clergy took place at the College, and in the evening the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was imparted in the most beautiful Chapel of the College.

BUTLER'S EXCHANGE TABLES.
We are requested by the Owner of the Copyright of Butler's Exchange Tables to state that the "Old Book of 30 years' standing" is by no means the latest edition, on the contrary, with the view of meeting present and future requirements, the sheets are already in the press carrying the sterling exchange in a continuous unbroken chain from 1848 to 1898. This additional work will shortly be published in 32 per cent. copy, and a new Edition of the whole work (combining also Butler's Universal Interest Tables) will be published in a few months at 50 per cent. A good deal of Mr. Butler's work having of late been appropriated by some, who have published it, with a view of inaccuracies of their own in infringing the rights of the author, the public are cautioned to test well the merits of any reprint before withdrawing their favour from the older book, the accuracy and usefulness of which has been so well tested in the past, and which economy will be maintained in all fresh matter introduced in the new edition to be issued, and all subsequent editions. [Advt.]

The following telegram is fuller than that received here:—
London, June 10.—The Government have been defeated by a large majority on Sir William Lawrence's motion for giving the ratepayers the option of prohibiting the opening of public houses in their several districts.

From the 1st inst. the Bahamas becomes a member of the Universal Postal Union, and from that date correspondence posted in Hongkong will be subject to the same rates of postage and conditions of transmission as correspondence addressed to Jamaica.

Captain J. B. Milnes of the British steamer Edith, which arrived at Singapore on the 20th, reports having passed in the Carimata Straits a large white-headed Russian man-of-war steering north.

The Singapore Times comments, in reproducing from our columns the report of the disaster which threatened the Edith,—but which was happily averted,—on the part of the vessel, that highly useful and commendable institution the Chinese Fire-Insurance, and also to the study of the highly respected Singapore Police force.

At the last parade of the Singapore Volunteer Corps on the 18th ult., there was to be seen on the Esplanade a company in the number of thirty men under the command of Sergeant Phillips, the energetic drill instructor of the Corps since its existence, who went through some admirable drill very creditably.

The Straits Times, writing of the Earl of Kimberley's resignation of the position of Secretary of State for the Colonies, refers to him as a statesman who has had previous experience of our affairs, and who, when formerly in the same office, proved himself an eminently just and liberal minded Secretary of State for the Colonies, much to the satisfaction of the Colonies, much to the satisfaction of the Colonies, much to the satisfaction of the Colonies.

H. I. G. M. S. Prinz Adalbert arrived at Singapore on Friday afternoon, the 18th inst., with H. R. H. Prince Heinrich on board.

The entertainments to the Prince consisted of a dinner exclusively of German, (80) at Teutonia Club, on the 20th, a tiffin at Government House next day, when he met Government Officials and Consular officials, and on the following day, a breakfast given by the Maharajah of Johore, at the Istana Johore and to which a large number of residents were invited, and which proved a very successful affair.

The Straits Times seems rather gratuitously to suggest that there has been some job connected with the steam launches recently built here for the Straits Government. Our contemporary says:—

One of the steam launches for the Native States built in Hongkong by the order of the late Administrator and the Colonial Secretary has arrived. Another one built also in Hongkong has been lost on the way down here in tow of the extra P. and O. steamer China, which arrived on Saturday. The launch that has arrived cost $1700, and it is stated that a similar and a better one could have been contracted for here for $1200. It is eminently desirable that a question should be put in Council as to who is responsible for sending these orders to Hongkong, and why tenders were not asked for here.

The S. S. Waverley, which recently arrived from Leit, has been chartered by Mr. E. Reding, the Consul for Russia at this port, to convey stores to Vladivostok at Shanghai.

It is reported, says the Shanghai Mercury, that Li Hung Chang, leader of the rebellion in Kwang Si, has been executed by order of the Empress.

We regret to hear of the death of Capt. Lamont, late commander of the O.C.N. Co's steamer, Europa. Mr. Lamont has been about thirty years on the Coast of China and the Eastern Seas, chiefly in the employment of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co. He commanded the clipper-ship Widow and the last named steamer for the Union Steam Navigation Co. after her purchase by that company; the S.S. Thales on the Calcutta line; the O.C.N. Co's S.S. Hougang, and the Europa. He was a nephew of the late Mr. John Lamont of the Eastern Ship and the Aberdeen and Hope Docks, Hongkong—the pioneer of docks in China.

From Tientsin we (Mercury) hear that the French Government has rejected the negotiations between Sir Thomas Wade and Li Hung Chang at Tientsin, and that the Viceroy of the province has been made Comptroller in the Order of Knighthood of Francis Joseph.

Waiting to the New Chinese Immigrants' Bill to which we have before referred, the Straits Times says:—

The Official Members, headed by H. E. the Governor, showed themselves disposed to allow due weight to the general public opinion respecting some clauses of the Chinese Immigrants' Bill, in spite of the fact that they seem to be acting in contravention to the express instructions of the Secretary of State. It is to be noted that the Chinese Immigrants' Bill the objectionable clauses were frankly withdrawn, the Colonial Secretary manifestly stating that the Government had considered the arguments of Honorable members, and, having given due weight to the views of the honorable members, the Government had decided to withdraw the Bill. The Bill, it is stated, will not be so large as is commonly believed. The Official Members expressed themselves satisfied with these concessions, and progress was reported with the Bill.

Law Notices.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF HONGKONG.

PROBATE JURISDICTION.—Before the Hon. the Chief Justice.—In re the Estates of W. S. King, deceased; Louisa King, deceased; and the Estates of W. S. King, deceased; and the Estates of W. S. King, deceased.

IN SUMMARY JURISDICTION.—No. 647.

Mak Cheong Fuk v. Lo Ching Sing.

SUPREME COURT.

IN BANKRUPTCY.

(Before Mr. Justice Snowden.)

Saturday, 3rd July.

IN AN OUTSTANDING COMPANY.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

The case was taken by Mr. Justice Snowden.

the opportunity since the case was last before the Court of receiving any immediate notice from him. But he had heard the whole facts of the case carefully over some ten days ago, and all he would now lay before the Court was facts within his own personal knowledge. Both the petitioners which this Court was now asked to remove from the file were Mr. Pin's petition, and he was entitled to tell the Court precisely how the matter stood.

Mr. Breton submitted that the learned Counsel had no locus standi here.

The Judge said he had intended to decide that nothing could be done in this case without notice being served on the firm.

Mr. Breton said it was not for the learned Counsel to come here with a statement of what was within his personal knowledge concerning the history of the petition, but he could explain the history of the case as well as his learned friend.

The only motion Mr. Pin could make was to draw the money out. By placing it in the hands of the Court he had admitted it was the money of the firm.

The Judge said he thought Mr. Breton should be heard first at all events.

Mr. Breton said the circumstances were simply these. On the 6th of January, 1879, he filed a petition to make the firm of Olyphant & Co. bankrupt. The firm at that time was, and still is, for it was still in existence, composed of two members, or partners four of whom were in America, one in Hongkong and one in Shanghai.

The petition was signed by Mr. Pin for himself and his partners, he setting under the general authority of the partnership.

That cannot be denied, and at all events when the case was very fully gone into and the Court held that five of the partners being absent the Court could not make the firm a bankrupt. He attended again on the 6th of January and gave his Lordship a very complete statement of the facts, and induced the Court to set in the matter.

The case stood over after these authorities had been submitted till three o'clock in the afternoon, to allow His Lordship to consult them, and when he waited again on the Lordship he said the matter was one in which the Court was not to be hurried, and on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld was then on his way out it might be well to await his return before going further. He mentioned these facts to show the amount of consideration the case had got. Sir John Stansfeld arrived here on the 17th, and on the 18th day he again attended before their Lordships, and after a long argument and discussion it was decided that on such a petition no adjudication could be made, and it was suggested that a creditor should file a petition. The decision then came to be to all intents and purposes a dismissal of the petition. More than twelve months had now elapsed. The petition was a dead letter, a mere nullity and could not be revived. No creditor in the meantime had filed any petition to make the firm bankrupt, and as Sir John Stansfeld

Intimations.

TRADE MARK.—Sectioned by H. M. A. Government.

HEALTH, STRENGTH, & ENERGY.

Trade Mark.—"PHOSPHODYNE"

Protected under the Trade Marks Act (35 and 36

Vict. c. 91).—Enacted by the Queen's

Most Excellent Majesty, 20th

August, 1876.

Certificates under this Act have been granted to

Dr. R. D. LALO, giving him the Sole Right

the Trade Mark Phosphodyne in England, Australia, Africa, China,

Canada, and India.

Discovered and so named, A.D.

1862, by R. D. LALO, M.D.

Pleasant to the Taste. The only Safe, Prompt, and Reliable PHOSPHODYNE REMEDY for Overworked Brains, Worry, Anxiety, Excitement,

Late Hours, Business Pressure, Nervous Prostration,

Wasting Diseases, Asthenia, Consumption,

Stomach and Liver Complaints, Impaired Nutrition,

Impoverished Blood, Premature Decline,

and all morbid Conditions of the System dependent upon the debility of Vital Force.

PHOSPHODYNE

Purifies and Enriches the Blood; Clears the Skin; Thoroughly Invigorates the Brain,

Nerves and Muscles; Re-establishes the Falling

Functions of Life, and thus Imparts Energy and

Fresh Vitality to the Exhausted Nervous System;

and Rapidly Cures every form of Nervous

Debility, Paralysis, Nervous, Mind, and Heart

Diseases, from whatever cause.

IMPORTANT TO EUROPEAN VI-

SITING OR RESIDING IN HOT

CLIMATES.—Dr. LALO'S Phosphodyne

has an enormous sale in India, China, Africa, and other Hot Climates, from the possessing in the most perfectly assimilable form the essential

Vitalizing Properties of Phosphorus, which re-animates the Exhausted Functions of Life when impaired by Heat or other causes. A very large number of Testimonials from all parts of the World, freely offered from private persons

Naval, Military, Scientific, and Professional Men who are well known, speak of the marvellous powers in Nervous Debility, Want of Stamina, Fevers, Malarious Diseases,

and as a Liver Tonic.

Sold in Bottles at 4s. 6d. and 1s.

CAUTION.—The name, DR. LALO'S

PHOSPHODYNE, is blown in the glass of each bottle, and the genuine PHOS-

PHODYNE is manufactured only at Dr.

LALO'S Laboratory, London, England.

Medicine Vendors are hereby warned that Legal Proceedings will be taken against all Persons selling the Fraudulent Imitation after this Notice.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—Every bottle

bears the British Government Stamp, with the words, Dr. LALO'S Phosphodyne, London,

England, by Order of Her Majesty's Honorable

Commissioners. IF NOT, IT IS A FOR-GERY.

DR. ROBERT D. LALO,

Of Bay House, 35, Gower St., London,

England.

(The Sole Proprietor and Originator of Phosphodyne)

Is prepared to Prove the following Facts in any

Court of Law in London, England, and to respectfully request Medical Vendors and the Public to read the name of Trade and Right against Falsehood and Fraud.

Intimations.

"HIGHEST AWARDS & PRIZES MEDAL, PHILADELPHIA, EXHIBITION, 1876."

WELLINGTON KNIFE POLISH

PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE PATENT BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

MAKING MACHINES, AND FOR THE BUTTER

Intimations.

CHAMPAGNE.

HEIDSIECK & CO'S

OF ALL

WINE MERCHANTS

DRY

MONOPOLE.

THOMAS SARGENT & CO., LONDON.—SOLE AGENTS FOR GREAT BRITAIN,

INDIA AND THE COLONIES.

In consequence of spurious imitations of

LEA AND PERRINS' SAUCE,

which are calculated to deceive the Public, Lea and Perrins have adopted A NEW LABEL, bearing their Signature, thus,

which is placed on every bottle of WORCESTERSHIRE

SAUCE, and without which none is genuine.

Ask for LEA & PERRINS' Sauce, and see Name on Wrapper, Label, Bottle and Stopper.

Wholesale and for Export by the Proprietors, Worcester; Cross and Blackwell, London, etc., etc., and by Grocers and Dealers throughout the World.

3s. 6d. 1s. 6d. 5s. 8s. 6d.

THE SAFEST MILD

APERTIENT FOR DELICATE

CONSTITUTIONS, LADIES,

CHILDREN AND INFANTS,

AND FOR REGULAR USE

IN WARM CLIMATES.

DINNEFORD'S

FLUID

MAGNESIA.

DINNEFORD & Co., Chemists

London,

N.B. ASK FOR DINNEFORD'S MAGNESIA.

Agents.—A. S. WATSON & Co., Hongkong.

8s. 6d. 1s. 6d. 5s. 8s. 6d.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR INDIGESTION.

TRADE MARK

CANONILE PILLS are confidently recommended as a simple Remedy for Indigestion, which is the cause of nearly all the diseases to which we are subject, being a medicine so perfectly adapted to the human system, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

and beneficial, that it is with justice called the "Natural Strengthening of the Human Stomach,"

Intimations.

BUGS, FLEAS, MOTHS, BEETLES,

and all other insects are destroyed by

KEATING'S INSECT POWDER,

which is quite harmless to Domestic Animals.

In exterminating Beetles the success of this Powder is extraordinary, and no one need be troubled by these pests. It is perfectly clean in application.

Ask for and be sure to obtain "Keating's Powder," as imitations are numerous,

and fail in giving satisfaction.

Sold by all Chemists in small bottles

1/- & 2/6 each.

KEATING'S WORM TABLETS.

PURELY VEGETABLE PREPARATION, both in appearance and taste, forming a most agreeable method of administering the only certain remedy for INTESTINAL and TUBERCULAR

WORMS. It is a perfectly safe and mild preparation, and is especially adapted for Children.

TESTIMONIAL.

Mr. KEATING: Medical Hall, Gloucester,

Nov. 28th, 1876.

Dear Sir,—I think it nothing but my duty to inform you of the immense sale I have for your Worm Tablets, which I may justly say is enormous, and in every case gives the greatest satisfaction. I have now in stock two bottles containing the Round

Worms brought me during the last few days by customers, one Worm 40 yards long. I dare not be without the remedy.

Yours respectfully,

M. A. WALKER.

Sold in Bottles, by all Chemists and Druggists.

Proprietor, THOMAS KEATING, London.

BEWARE AND CAUTION.—Whereas fraudulent imitations of this unassured remedy have been sold, I hereby request anyone of the quality of the same to communicate with me; on conviction of the offender a liberal reward will be paid.

8s. 6d. 1s. 6d. 5s. 8s. 6d.

